

Minecraft: The Fallen Mountain

Chapter 1 by Dustin

Part One: The Fall

Steve lived a happy life. He had a beautiful village full of wonderful people. They were kind and cared about everyone. Steve only knew this part in the big world that they lived in. Many adventurers have tried to map parts of the world, but none have returned.

Except for two.

Two map-seekers have returned, though they didn't map out the whole world. Their names were Jesse and Reuben, and they were legends. Actual legends. Some people thought they were myths, but they were real. Some proof was a map. The map showed places that were, well, unexplored. Mostly forests and deserts, but there was one place that had never been heard of: The End. It was called The End because people that go into it will never come back, though Jesse and Reuben think that if you go into the end and manage to come back out, you could be able to get any wish you want.

Steve didn't believe the wish-part of the story, but the rest sounded cool.

But this would be the key for when the mountain fell.

For the town would not survive.
